Editorial

Hello everyone and welcome to the October edition of Round & About Lawshall.

In years gone by, when I was firmly ensconced in the classroom by mid September and the summer holidays were already a distant memory, I always suspected that some of the best weather of the year was happening without me. How right I was! We have been lucky again this year to enjoy some beautiful warm days in September, with cooler nights to make sleep more easy. Let's hope as we move into October these benign conditions continue to enable us to enjoy the beautiful environment in which we live.

Wendy Harris and James, Bobbie and Jack Seager had favourable weather for their participation in this year's Ride and Stride event raising funds for Suffolk Historic Churches Trust and in particular All Saints', Lawshall. Congratulations to them on their fundraising efforts, and if anyone would like to donate via justgiving, I have added the links below.

This month's magazine offers another snapshot of all that Lawshall has to offer. Do take a few minutes to peruse its pages. You may be interested too in joining us at the Village Hall for the annual Harvest Supper, on Saturday 5th October, which this year will include a local history talk promising to be of interest to residents both old and new. It would be lovely to see you there.

With warmest regards,

Julia

Just a Thought....

George Orwell made this pertinent comment, "In a time of deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act." Free societies stand or fall on the way they handle truth. Politicians who lie to the people are ultimately discovered and lose their ability to lead. Trust is vital for the democratic process. Without God and His absolute truth, political systems determine their own standards, and change them at will. One communist-era dissenter wrote that truth was whatever the state declared it to be at the moment.

However, God's truth, revealed in His Word, is established forever, and upholds individuals, families and their institutions, no matter what. He has declared that, 'Truthful lips will be established forever' (Proverbs 12v19) such that when He took on human nature in the person of Jesus, He said, "Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will never pass away" (Matthew 24v35) and, "If I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?" (John 8v46).

If you want to know the truth about the purpose of life, the future after this life, the truth of Jesus Christ and the reason He came to earth you would be most welcome at our Sunday morning services. He declared, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no one comes to the Father except through me. Whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die." (John 14v6 & 11v26), i.e. the second death that without Jesus we are naturally exposed to. (Revelation 21v8).

We are an evangelical church and our service is from 11:00 to 12:00 every Sunday morning; we can pick up if required. We also run a "Little Treasures" Parent and Toddler Group on a Thursday morning. For further information please refer to the "Little Treasures" diary page on the website www.lawshallfreechurch.org.uk

Lawshall Ladies

In September Lawshall Ladies welcomed guests to listen to an interesting talk given by the Medical Detection Dogs charity. This organisation trains dogs to detect cancer and other life-threatening diseases, including Parkinson's disease and bacterial infections. In addition, medical alert assistant dogs can be trained to warn people of an impending medical event, helping them manage complex, life-threatening medical conditions and improving their quality of life. The charity has a strict no kennel policy, ensuring that all dogs live in the homes of MDD staff or local volunteers, where they are loved and cared for as part of the family.

On Friday October 4th, the group meeting will be a poppy-making workshop led by Cally James.

Willows

Residential Care Home

The Willows is a friendly residential care home for elderly ladies and gentlemen and is part of the Extrafriend group of care homes.

We are situated in the village of Lawshall which is about 6 miles south of Bury-St-Edmunds, Suffolk. Set in 2 large tranquil landscaped gardens and surrounded by countryside, The Willows (Originally a farmhouse) has been sympathetically and tastefully extended and refurbished and is now home to 25 residents.

Care Manager, Mrs Teresa Strudwick says that: "All clients are treated as individuals with dignity and respect and where client comfort and safety come first".

If you would like further information on admission arrangements and fees, please contact our Care Home Manager on 01284-830665 who will be pleased to answer any questions and arrange a tour of our Home.

Lawshall Garden Club

October is, in my opinion, one of the best months, when the leaves turning colour adds another element to the garden.

However, there is always something to be done, especially before the winter sets in:

- Turf laying and grass seeding, planting tulips and lilies, lifting and storing dahlias
- Tidying the borders by clearing weeds and cutting back dead flowering stems. However, some flower heads can be left for the wonderful effect they produce over winter such as Sedums.
- Clear fallen leaves from grass areas and away from the crowns of other plants to prevent rotting.
- Begin the process of collecting leaves for making leaf mould. Ideally, leaf mould should be left for two years or more for it to become fine and fresh, but it can be used after one year. Two-year-old leaf mould is ideal as a mulch for healthy plant growth and for soil improvement. Mixed with soil, it can also be used for potting on young plants. If it is only a year old, it is best used as a mulch under young trees and fruit bushes.
- Pots for spring can be planted up this month. Maybe consider layering your pots for longer displays in the spring by placing larger and later flowering bulbs (eg tulips) towards the bottom, daffodils for earlier flowers in the middle section and perhaps some small spring irises at the top.
- Cut back roses by about a third late in October or early November to avoid wind rock, leaving the full pruning for February or March.

Lawshall Community Woodlands Forest for Our Children

At this time of year there is a change in emphasis in woodland management tasks. Gone are the days of nesting birds and flowering meadows with their associated insects. Now the 'real' work of maintaining diversity in the woodlands begins.

If there were no intervention at all, the woodlands would become very gloomy beneath the thick canopy of trees overhead, and the woodland floor beneath would be almost devoid of any wildlife. This is where coppicing can make all the difference. Trees are coppiced at an approximate height of 30cm above ground. This seems very drastic but when spring arrives, the stumps sprout and grow anew providing they are protected from deer browsing. In this manner there can be an almost endless cycle of coppicing and regrowth over many centuries. Bradfield Woods has, or had, a living ash stool that was thought to be about nine hundred years old, although that is unusual.

In Golden and Crooked Woods the trees are not quite so old but perhaps some of them will grow to a great age if they continue to be managed by the community through the centuries. Currently, it is mostly hazel that is being coppiced. Hazel does not achieve any great size, and it is usually more of a large shrub than a tree. However, it provides some useful wood and regrows very quickly. Areas of our community woodlands are being coppiced for the first time since their planting but reference to the 1611 map of Frithy Wood shows that areas in that wood were coppiced on twelve to twenty year cycles as well as leaving standard trees for building. My house might have been built with a timber frame sourced from Frithy Wood, although it was recycled in about 1595 from a much older building.

This month's management morning involves clearing the cut hazel and stacking the cordwood so that it can dry out for a couple of years before sale.

From the Archives October 2024

As I was planning what to include in this month's R&A I thought that a lot of the archives are in my head! As is the case for all the people who have lived here for many years. Several people have commented on what a 'spread out' village this is and I must admit that because I lived in Melford Road until the 1970s, I didn't really know the Lawshall Green end of the village. I will be giving a talk on Saturday 5th October at the Village Hall and will probably then give an overview of all the areas of the village.

Harvest in the 1940s was very different. No huge combines with lights blazing all night. The lady on the tractor is Nancy Lay, she was the wife of the Headteacher at Lawshall School. Then the teachers usually lived in the village, but now teachers are bombarded with dozens of emails from parents every day. There are so many contrasts between then and now. All part of our wonderful village history.

Bird Notes

Unfortunately, we were unable to go on our family holiday at the beginning of September as we had both contracted Covid whilst visiting Derby for my brother's birthday. Once we started to feel a little better and testing clear we booked a little break in Norfolk.

My birding skills, for what they are, have not been put to much use recently so we were quite surprised to notch up a total of 79 species on the holiday. There were a few glaring gaps in the list where we had missed such easy birds as song thrush, reed bunting, yellowhammer, common gull etc.

However, almost everywhere we went along the North Norfolk coast we saw spoonbills - they must be doing rather well, especially as we counted 14 near Morston. Great white egrets which were a real rarity until recently were noted singularly in at least three spots on the coast.

I don't know whether there is any connection with my eyesight here, but we tended to see fewer species of the smaller birds - very few migrants which we might expect to see at the coast at this time. Swallows and house martins were around, but the only warblers we saw were a few chiffchaffs and a whitethroat.

The one rarity which we did manage to spot was an American golden plover at Titchwell RSPB. I must admit that I would never have picked out this bird had I not been told in advance that it had been seen the previous day on the reserve. The task of looking through lots of our usual "goldies" to find this one bird was quite taxing, but fortunately I had seen one years ago on the Isles of Scilly so could remember what I was looking for. Basically, it is marginally smaller than the norm and has a prominent white eye stripe.

All in all, a much appreciated few days away!

One of the joys of being the unofficial Archivist for the village is sometimes being able to find out information for people about their families. One Sunday last month someone visited the Swan and asked the lovely Liz if anyone might have some information about the Dale family. The query was passed to me and I told Liz that the Dales are part of my own extended family!

The photo above shows the Dale family at Gate Farm at the end of Golden Lane. Now known as Gate & West Farm. This photo was taken in 1938. The young man on the right is Vic, who married my aunt from Coopers Farm.

I am always happy that I have saved the photos that have been passed on to me so I can share them. The photo shows Arthur & Margaret, Vera, and Vic and then the children Winn, Gerald and Doug.

This wedding took place during WW2. L to R Arthur Dale, Gwen Dale (my aunt), Alfred Wright and his bride Vera Dale. Then Uncle Vic who was married to Gwen, and Winn.

The Lawshall Trust

There are two trusts in the village administered by the Lawshall Trustees: The Lawshall Trust and the Lawshall Relief Fund. They each get funds from dividends on investments, which arise as a result of bequests of land and money left to the people of Lawshall throughout its history.

For example the Village Hall was built on "Town Lands" which was left to the village in this way.

The Lawshall Relief Fund exists for the following purpose:

"to relieve either generally or individually persons, resident in the ancient parish of Lawshall, who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress by making grants of money or providing items, services or facilities calculated to reduce the needs, hardship or distress of such persons".

We give thanks for the men of Lawshall who in the 16th Century started the Trust for our village.

The Lawshall Trust is still there today for those persons who need help. Over the years there have been many who have needed a helping hand, young people and the elderly.

Also any organisation in the village can ask for assistance, as long as it is village based.

Whatever help is needed, everything is confidential.

We meet in May and November to decide on the support we give out. If you want to apply for funds please use the form printed opposite.

Lawshall Relief and Trust Funds

Application for Assistance

The Lawshall Relief and Trust Funds have been in existence in one form or another for almost 500 years, and exist to support the residents of the village. Support can be applied for from a wide selection of criteria such as help at Christmas, to students purchasing study books or helping local clubs or organisations meet their financial obligations. Applications can be made at any time, and we like to remind everyone that there is this option at this time of year.

If you are interested in making an application please could you complete the details below and return the form to either:
